Dear Residents,

I am writing to share some important upcoming updates regarding our Parish Council.

After twelve years of dedicated service, Chris Hill has decided to retire from his role as Council Clerk. On behalf of the Parish Council and our entire community, I would like to thank Chris wholeheartedly for his wisdom, guidance, and unwavering dedication. His calm, unflappable approach to the challenges we have faced over the years will be greatly missed.

Chris's final session in post was at the Parish Council meeting on Monday 21st September 2026 at which the new clerk was also present.

Looking forward, I am delighted to announce that Melanie Palmer has agreed to step into the role of our new Clerk, officially taking over on 1st October 2026. Chris will be handing over the reins to Melanie following his last meeting. Please join us in wishing Chris a very happy retirement and giving Melanie a warm welcome.

THESE YELLOW PAGES

These yellow pages are distributed each month via email and hard copy throughout the Ironstone Villages. If you don't receive one and would like to, please get in touch with either Marie Hough at sae.churches@mail.com, tel 01664 793439, or Sue Watford at suewatford2@gmail.com, tel 075171 84445. Spare copies can often be found in the churches.

Notices of charitable events or other general information (we used to run an item for sale column) can also be sent in (preferably to Sue via email) if you send in a poster, please bear in mind that any in A4 or A5 size will have to be reduced (please see the October events pages), which may render the text too small to read - it can also become illegible if the image is too dark with background images. There is no charge for charitable events or other local information of interest.

If you'd like to advertise non-charitable events (please see the back pages), charges are £72 per page per year - and pro rata for smaller sizes (ie. £12 for 1/6th page; £24 for 1/3rd page, etc.).

Letter from the Rector

Appreciating our costly heritage ...

Dear friends,

Like many people, I've enjoyed learning about the Tudor period of our English history. In fact, Tudor history - including the escapades of King Henry VIII and his six wives - was one of my favourite subjects at school.

This year marks the 500th anniversary of an event which took place during Henry VIII's reign, and one which continues to affect both our English language, and the life of the Christian Church. The event is the publishing of the first English translation of the New Testament by William Tyndale.

Born in 1494 in a Gloucestershire village, Tyndale was a background radical during Henry VIII's reign (he is mentioned in Wolf Hall but doesn't get involved in the action). As a young Catholic priest in England, Tyndale was inspired by Martin Luther's groundbreaking translation of the Bible into German, and with great determination he set to work doing the same for English speakers. He became increasingly determined to translate the Scriptures from the Greek into contemporary English.

Soon he was suspected of heresy, and was told to stop his translating. His response to his persecutors has chimed down through history: "If God spare my life, I will cause a boy that drives a plough to know more of the Scriptures than you do". Aware of threats to his life, Tyndale left England and while in Germany produced a New Testament in English which was published anonymously in 1526.

His English translation was so good that, when the Authorised (King James) Version was published in 1611, over 80% of the New Testament text was from Tyndale's translation. He has given us popular phrases such as 'no man can serve two masters', 'he gave up the ghost', 'a law unto themselves', 'it came to pass', and 'the signs of the times'. Tyndale went on to work on an English translation of the Old Testament before he was arrested in 1535, condemned as a heretic, and sentenced to death on 6th October 1536.

Unlike 500 years ago, we now have many different English versions of the Bible readily available. Tyndale's life and martyrdom remind us that it is easy to take such access to the Bible in English for granted.

It was the great Indian leader Mahatma Ghandi who once remarked that “you Christians look after a document containing enough dynamite to blow all civilisation to pieces, turn the world upside down, and bring peace to a battle-torn planet. But you treat it as though it is nothing more than a piece of literature”.

On Bible Sunday this year (25th October), we can remember with thanksgiving Christian heroes like William Tyndale, who gave their life to help us “read, mark, learn and inwardly digest” the priceless treasure of the Holy Scriptures in English.

With all good wishes,

(John Barr, Rector)

HELP OUR LOCAL HEDGEHOGS

"If it's out in the day, it's not okay!"

I recently found a sick hedgehog in my garden. Thanks to Digby's Hedgehog Rescue, it was treated for lungworm and safely released back home. I had no idea help like this existed locally - and now I want others to know too!

How to spot a hedgehog emergency?

Call a rescue if you see one that is:

- Out in daylight (esp. weak or wobbly)
- Coughing or bubbling at the nose
- Injured, limping or caught in netting
- Covered in flies or maggots
- Very small or out in cold weather

What to do with a poorly hedgehog?

- Place in a high-sided box with a towel
- Keep warm, quiet, and away from pets
- Offer water (never milk!)
- Call a rescue immediately

Be a Hedgehog Hero!

- Avoid pesticides (esp. slug pellets)
- Check grass before mowing / burn piles before lighting
- Put out a shallow dish of water
- Supervise pets at night
- Create a hedgehog highway in the fences (5" x 5" gap for access)
- Leave logs or leaf piles for shelter

I didn't realise I regularly drive so close to stretches of Ermine Street which are still visible - and was even less aware that some are actually marked.
