EATON PARISH COUNCIL

Clerk: Chris Evans
clerk@eatonpc.org.uk Tel No 07963472514

Let me introduce myself as the new Parish Clerk of Eaton, Eastwell and Goadby Marwood, having taken over from Terry Brown in August this year.

I am from Norfolk and went to University to study Geophysics. From there I took up employment with the British Geological Survey at Keyworth for some twenty five years. During my time there I successfully was elected as a Borough Councillor on Rushcliffe for over twenty years, as well as a Keyworth Parish Councillor.

Having moved on from Rushcliffe, I then became a Borough Councllor at Melton, and moved on to employment as Town Clerk at Oakham for several years, from which I recently left.

My latest chapter is therefore as your Clerk and recently also Clerk at Branston and Croxton Kerrial, which in many ways complements my job here.

I look forward to working with this Council for the community and will try to be available to help wherever possible.

THESE YELLOW PAGES

These yellow pages are distributed each month via email and hard copy throughout the Ironstone Villages. If you don't receive one and would like to, please get in touch with either Marie Hough at sae.churches@mail.com, tel 01664 793439, or Sue Watford at suewatford2@gmail.com, tel 075171 84445. Spare copies can often be found in the churches.

Notices of charitable events or other general information (we used to run an item for sale column) can also be sent in (preferably to Sue via email). If you send in a poster, please bear in mind that any in A4 or A5 size will have to be reduced, which may render the text too small to read - it can also become illegible if the image is too dark with background images. There is no charge for charitable events or other local information of interest.

If you'd like to advertise non-charitable events (please see the back pages), charges are £72 per page per year - and pro rata for smaller sizes (ie. £12 for 1/6th page; £24 for 1/3rd page, etc.).

Letter from the Rector

Remember and be prepared .....

Dear friends,

This month, we remember those who have made the ultimate sacrifice for our nation in time of war, particularly the two World Wars. Yet, in looking at the state of our world today, we can see how war is a present reality in many places. And there is also a deep anxiety that things could escalate in a way that will affect all of us.

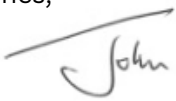

A few weeks ago, the journalist Allan Little wrote an article entitled "War may be coming. Are we psychologically ready?" He pointed out that our government 'wants us all to start preparing for severe disruption to our lives ... to stockpile canned food and drinking water, strengthen our civic resilience, and plan for the possibility of war'. Furthermore, the Chief of the Defence Staff, Sir Richard Knighton, said recently that the threat from Russia means that Britain is living through the 'most dangerous' period of his 35-year career in the armed forces.

In the face of this threat - particularly that posed by cyber war - how psychologically prepared are we for the increasing prospect of another war? How prepared are we, for example, to make sacrifices in other areas of our national life, in order to strengthen our defences? As we remember the terrible human cost of war, it is tempting to keep our focus on past wars, or else on conflicts 'out there'. However, human nature being what it is, conflict is always part and parcel of the ongoing struggle for a better world, and it affects all of us one way or another.

In a world whose future is now overshadowed with existential threats, whether caused by escalating war, climate crisis, or unchecked rogue AI development, where - we might wonder - is any hope to be found? Christians believe that the costly hope we have been given once and for all by God is through the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. In Jesus Christ, we believe that God has now opened a path to true and lasting peace for the whole of creation which, one day, will be fulfilled when Christ returns. At the end of this month on Advent Sunday, we shall be reminded of Christ's call to "keep awake" and to "keep alert and pray", as we look forward in hope to God's promises being fulfilled.

In the meantime, we are not left on our own. God in Christ walks with us, and shares our struggles to overcome evil with good. As we turn to the Lord in faith and seek the help of His Spirit, God will surely give us what we need to face the challenges of today, and also to prepare for whatever tomorrow may bring.

With all good wishes,

(John Barr, Rector)

DAVID TUSCANY

Founder ChippedIn

THE 1000: 1,000 golf courses across Great Britain within 1,000 days

An extraordinary journey for charity

David is giving himself 1,000 days to play 1,000 golf courses across Great Britain, while aiming to raise £500,000 for Alzheimer's Research UK and the Golf Foundation, Melton Mowbray. He will begin on 1st January 2027, teeing off at Woodhall Spa. 80% of the funds will go to Alzheimer's Research UK and 20% to the Golf Foundation, helping more children and young people to discover golf and the benefits it can bring. At Woodhall Spa he will be joined for the opening round by Josh Simpson, who holds the world record for the most golf courses played in a single year.

In David's words: "This started with my mum. She loved birds, animals and being out in the countryside. Walking was her thing until dementia made her too frail to do it. I looked after her through dementia, and after losing her I wanted to do something in her memory that was positive, that would get me out there and that could hopefully make a difference to other families.

"Playing 1,000 courses isn't really the point. The point is what those 1,000 rounds can help achieve".

From Woodhall Spa David will travel across mainland Great Britain, through three British winters and every kind of weather the country can throw at him, as he attempts to play 1,000 different courses within the 1,000 day deadline. Every course will form part of the story, with daily social content and regular films documenting the journey across ChippedIn's channels (@chippedinuk).

Along the way David will also visit schools and care homes to talk about The 1000, the benefits of golf and the causes behind the challenge. He is hoping people will come along for the journey and would clubs and golfers to get involved, young people to see what golf can offer them - and most of all to raise as much money as possible for dementia research.

Donations can be made through the ChippedInwebsite at www.chippedin.co.uk/1000 (donations are processed by GiveWheel).

EASTWELL HISTORY GROUP

The Owls of the Vale

On Wednesday, 18th November, we shall welcome the return of Don Pritchett to Eastwell Village Hall. Starting at 7.30 pm, Don will update us on the owl population in the Vale of Belvoir. Don's previous talk was very enlightening, covering all aspects of the life of the birds as well as a broader range of ornithological issues. Entry is free to paid-up members, and under 16s. Entry for non-members £4.

The Annual Pub Quiz

The annual Pub Quiz is booked for Saturday, 16th January 2027. Starting at 7.00 pm in Eastwell Village Hall, this is always a sell-out event with fun to be had and a range of questions to suit all, with answers at the end of each round and constant update on how each team is doing. More details to follow.

HELP OUR LOCAL HEDGEHOGS

"If it's out in the day, it's not okay!"

I recently found a sick hedgehog in my garden. Thanks to Digby's Hedgehog Rescue, it was treated for lungworm and safely released back home. I had no idea help like this existed locally - and now I want others to know too!

How to spot a hedgehog emergency?

Call a rescue if you see one that is:

- Out in daylight (esp. weak or wobbly)
- Coughing or bubbling at the nose
- Injured, limping or caught in netting
- Covered in flies or maggots
- Very small or out in cold weather

What to do with a poorly hedgehog?

- Place in a high-sided box with a towel
- Keep warm, quiet, and away from pets
- Offer water (never milk!)
- Call a rescue immediately

Be a Hedgehog Hero!

- Avoid pesticides (esp. slug pellets)
- Check grass before mowing / burn piles before lighting
- Put out a shallow dish of water
- Supervise pets at night
- Create a hedgehog highway in the fences (5" x 5" gap for access)
- Leave logs or leaf piles for shelter
